Plant Pat. No. 1604

A most intriguing combination of luscious colors. The basic color is cream-white, but petals are lined with carmine. As the urn-shaped bud opens into a double, high-pointed bloom, this deep rich red color spreads all through the flower, revealing a suffusion of yellow.

These beautiful flowers are of exhibition size—a good 5 inches across—and are carried on long, strong stems. Double and very fragrant, they are sure to be Queen of the Show in your garden and home. The vigorous, upright plant is healthy and very free blooming. Flowers are borne singly and in big bouquets.

$3.50 each; 3 for $9.20; 6 for $18.40

Careless Love Plant Pat. No. 1582

So distinctive and genuinely unique that anyone can recognize it instantly. More than anything it will probably remind you of a variegated camellia. Sometimes a bloom is pink with white streaks, sometimes rose color with white dots, or it may be even deeper red with white. Occasionally you may find a whole petal of solid color or a pure pink or even an apricot-yellow bloom. Hot sun has no effect on the color.

The parent of this remarkable variegated Rose is Red Radiance, and from it Careless Love inherits unusual vigor, sure-blooming qualities, hardiness and unfailing reliability. The plant grows about 3 feet tall and produces its fragrant flowers all through the season.

CHRYSLER

Chrysler Imperial Plant Pat. No. 1167

An aristocratic Rose in iridescent tones of crimson with darker overtones of glowing oxblood-red. Long, tapering buds and large, full, high-centered flowers with 40 to 50 petals. Richly fragrant. The compact, symmetrical plant blooms freely and continuously. Chrysler Imperial has the good points of an exhibition Rose—beautiful form, excellent keeping quality and real “personality.” It is perfect for cutting.

Montezuma

Plant Pat. No. 1383

This is a companion for Queen Elizabeth Rose, which was the first of the Grandifloras. This one is a beauty, too, with big double blooms of perfect form. They are about 4 inches across, with 40 petals of good texture. In color it is a vibrant, eye-catching scarlet-orange. The plant is big, husky and vigorous, with leathery, semi-glossy leaves. It will give you quantities of long-lasting buds and blooms.

Peace Plant Pat. No. 591

Peace is "everyman's Rose." Its colors change daily and vary from flower to flower but are always beautiful. The tints of yellow, pale gold, cream and ivory show a varying blush of pink on the petal edges. Though the broad-petaled, double bloom is huge, it is constantly fresh looking. Long, straight, magnificently strong stems and shining, dark green foliage. Hardy, healthy and very tall, it needs plenty of room.

AMERICA'S FINEST EVERBLOOMING ROSES

are identified by this symbol

The letters AARS stand for All-America Rose Selection. Roses marked with the symbol shown above are winners of an award that proves they are adaptable and recommended for All America. New varieties competing for this award are planted in trial gardens located in different areas of the United States. They are watched by competent judges who make notes on their performance over a period of two full years. Finally, the notes of all the judges are compiled, and the winning new Roses are announced. Any wonder this is a coveted award? Watch for the symbol that marks the All-America winners.

WHITE KNIGHT

Queen Elizabeth Plant Pat. No. 1259

The first Grandiflora, combining the best points of the Hybrid Teas and the Floribundas. Blooms in great branching sprays on almost thornless stems. The soft carmine-pink, fragrant, nicely formed flowers are lightly ruffled. Unusually strong and upright, with the topmost blooms borne shoulder-high. Continuous blooming all through summer and autumn. Grandifloras make splendid specimen plants and may be used in place of other shrubs. As hedges they are superb, or as a backdrop for massed Floribundas.

White Knight Plant Pat. No. 1359

The perfectly pointed buds open into impressive blooms—each a 35-petaled beauty. A strong, upright grower with good foliage and erect stems, White Knight is splendid for cutting, offering the loveliest of white flowers that stay white throughout the life of the bloom. It does not ball or discolor in damp weather. The bushy, 3-foot plant blooms freely.

$3.00 each; 3 for $7.95; 6 for $15.90

NEW YORKER

You Can Depend of TY-TEX

New Yorker Plant Pat. No. 823

A gay bright red Rose of extremely good sparkling color. The perfectly formed buds open slowly to flowers that are often 6½ inches across, with soft velvety petals. Delightful raspberry fragrance. Not only is the clear red color long lasting and sun resistant but the 3-foot bushes are upright and vigorous. The young shoots and new growth are also bright red. Blooms profusely from June to frost. Hardy and healthy.

$2.50 each; 3 for $6.60; 6 for $13.20

Golden Scepter Plant Pat. No. 910

A majestic Hybrid Tea that has won the highest Rose awards in Holland and England and is highly praised all over America. An unfading yellow Rose is a rarity, but here is one that combines grace, bright color and unusual hardiness with this non-fading ability. The tall, open plant bears dozens of slender, golden yellow buds, which slowly open to large, exquisite yellow blooms with high centers. The dark glossy foliage is very disease resistant. Grows 2½ to 3 feet high, rather open and airy in habit. Strong and hardy.

$1.85 each; 3 for $4.85; 6 for $9.50

THE ALAMO

The Alamo Plant Pat. No. 1689

One glance at the illustration at the right will show you why we call The Alamo a truly sensational new Rose. The flowers are absolutely packed with thick, velvety petals—as many as 100 to 125 of them—of rich cardinal-red. The large bloom is carried on a strong stem. It is cupped at first, becoming flat as it opens, with the petals rolling outward. Vigorous and upright in habit of growth, with leathery foliage.

upon the Quality ROSE BUSHES

Helen Traubel Plant Pat. No. 1028

A Rose of strong "personality" and enormous appeal. Many admirers call it the finest pink Rose. The sparkling color is a lively pink, but more often a luminous apricot, blending into rich orange. Buds are large and tapered, opening into blooms of extraordinary size and fragrance. Vigorous and prolific, and alive with gorgeous buds and blooms. The flowers are good in any weather, warm or cool, and are carried singly on long stems. You'll hardly believe it possible for a bush to produce so many exquisite blooms of delicate color and elegant form. Plant it for yourself, and you'll join the chorus of praise for Helen Traubel.

Golden Masterpiece

Plant Pat. No. 1284

A big, majestic yellow Rose that is nevertheless graceful and appealing. It has long golden buds with an occasional touch of red on the petal edges, opening gradually. The high-centered flowers of rich gold, as much as 6½ inches in diameter, are even brighter in the summer sun. They appear repeatedly all season long, filling the garden with pleasant Old Rose fragrance; long stems enable you to cut it for indoors. Glossy green foliage covers the plant, making a beautiful picture even before the flowers open. The bush grows 3 to 4 feet tall and is very strong and healthy.

GOLDEN MASTERPIECE

Pink Peace

Plant Pat. App. for

What else could this splendid Rose be called but Pink Peace? It's a direct descendant of Peace, which has been called the best Rose of all time. Extravagant praise? Its fine offspring are among the many good points of Peace, and here is one of its best "children." The terrific size of the flower and its free-blooming quality make it a real stand-out. The deep dusty pink—a most attractive color that's rich, soft and fetching—is completely charming. Huge, luminous blossoms are borne one to a long stem. They open from shapely buds to double, cupped flowers with 60 to 65 petals that roll outward in a graceful way. Petal edges are delicately curled and curved here and there. A tall-growing, disease-resistant plant with enormous vigor is the final factor that contributes to the all-round desirability of Pink Peace. These satiny pink blooms belong in your garden, but of course you won't let them stay there. You'll cut them for lovely arrangements, so that you can admire this opulent beauty at close quarters.

MIRANDY

Mirandy

Plant Pat. No. 632

Immense, ovoid buds of dark, rich red with black shadings and most delicious, full-bodied fragrance. The flower eventually becomes a huge, 50-petaled bloom that lasts a long time. It does best in sunshine and warm weather. The plants are medium in height, vigorous and free branching. Mirandy has taken its place among the foremost All-America winners, for it is a grand Rose from bud to bloom. Its magnificent deep wine color, big flowers packed with petals, and especially its rich old-fashioned fragrance combine to make it a Rose you can't forget. Definitely, Mirandy is for you!

Confidence Plant Pat. No. 1192

This beauty has the great Peace Rose as an ancestor and has won high awards in France. It has huge size, good substance and a delectable color—a blend of pearly peach-pink to yellow. The giant, 6-inch blooms are of exhibition form, with about 35 large petals, rich in fragrance. A broad, shapely plant with good leathery foliage. $2.25 each; 3 for $6.00; 6 for $12.00

Twilight Plant Pat. No. 1434

A heart-melting new pastel tint that will make you admit there is something new under the sun. Lavender-lilac with a light silvery reverse, this is a beautiful step toward the blue Rose that has eluded hybridists. The bud is pointed in form, opening gradually to a high-centered bloom, borne singly on a 12 to 15-inch stem. Perfect for formal and informal arrangements. The plant grows 20 to 24 inches high and is well clothed with foliage. Does best under normal growing conditions. An outstanding novelty that will delight you.

COLOR

Living Plant Pat. No. 1463

A lovely new flame-colored Rose originated by Dr. Walter E. Lammerts the producer of Charlotte Armstrong, Mirandy, Chrysler Imperial and other top-notch varieties. It has a vigorous and upright habit of growth, with an abundance of leathery, semi-glossy leaves. The large, stately flowers are borne freely on long cutting stems. They have a moderate, spicy fragrance and from 22 to 25 petals arranged regularly. Blooms are high centered at first, later becoming flat open with the petals loosely rolled outward. The color is the most distinctive feature of Living Rose. The long, urn-shaped buds are rich, blazing orange-red, turning to reddish orange flowers with the under side of the petals glowing copper streaked with red.

Nocturne Plant Pat. No. 713

Bright cardinal-red with dark shades of very deep crimson. A lighter, even more beautiful shade in hot weather. The heavy-textured petals tolerate any climate without suffering. Long, graceful buds open gradually to a handsome 5-inch bloom having a delightful, pleasing fragrance. A very sturdy, bushy plant growing 3 to 4 feet tall. Outstanding in every way. Nocturne has been a favorite ever since it won the AARS award in 1948.

$2.25 each; 3 for $6.00; 6 for $12.00

Love Song Plant Pat. No. 1360

A marvelous new Rose full of glowing beauty. The unopened buds are big and fat, deep gold edged dark coppery rose. As the buds develop, they are yellow and deep coppery salmon-pink. As the blooms open, they show more and more of the bright, shining salmon-pink. They measure 4½ to 5 inches across, with 35 to 50 regularly arranged petals. Fragrance moderate to strong. Extra-good, bushy habit with cedar-green, slightly glossy foliage. It blooms freely and continuously. Flowers are carried singly on a stem, making it ideal for cutting.

Blanche Mallerin Plant Pat. No. 594

Really superior white Roses are rare. Among them Blanche Mallerin has made a name for herself. The long, well-formed buds and beautifully modeled blooms are a joy to behold. The satiny sheen of the 35 to 40 snowy white petals gives the flower real quality, and sweet fragrance adds the final touch of perfection. A free-blooming, sturdy plant of medium height. A wonderful Rose for table arrangements. No matter how much you like Roses of warm coloring, you will find that a truly elegant white Rose fills a spot that nothing else can touch.

Red Pinocchio Plant Pat. No. 812

Buds are attractive deep satiny carmine on the outside of the petals and bright carmine on the inside, making a very lovely effect. The color deepens and acquires a velvety cast as the bloom opens fully. The 3½-inch flowers are carried in large, unfading clusters that last a long time. Individual blooms are scattered between the main flowering periods. Like all of its family, Red Pinocchio is a wonderful bloomer. The plant is bushy and upright, with long, heavy shoots. If you have room for it, a whole bed of Red Pinocchio will prove to be a marvelous "pick-up" for your garden.

Plant Pat. No. 1683

We like this variety for its purity of color, freedom of bloom, glossy foliage and fresh fragrance. For production and color it leads the field in yellow Floribundas. The 3½ to 4-inch, fragrant flowers with a pretty crest of stamens appear both in large clusters and singly. Shiny dark foliage on an upright, 2½ to 3-foot plant. One of the newest All-America award winners.

BLOOMS AND BLOOMS AND BLOOMS

Summer Snow

The most profuse blooming of all White Floribundas, with beautiful large clusters as clean and white as snow. Without doubt, the finest pure white of its class because of its generous production of blooms all season. Plants are vigorous but lower than most Floribundas, making Summer Snow ideal for low hedges or borders. We give it our unqualified recommendation.

$1.25 each; 3 for $3.75

Rose Elfe

A strong, hardy, 2-foot bush with miniature rose-pink buds that open to 2-inch, high-centered flowers. In spite of their small size, the blooms are of perfect Hybrid Tea form. They are excellent for flower arrangements. Long-stemmed clusters of bloom all season.

$1.25 each; 3 for $3.25

Floradora

Exquisitely formed buds of glowing orange-scarlet are carried in sprays of 6 to 12. Each bud is slow opening to a fully double flower. The plant is 2½ to 3 feet tall, slender and vigorous. A prolific and continuous bloomer from early June to late fall. A vibrant Rose, delightful for cutting.

BETTY PRIOR

ALL EVERBLOOMING VARIETIES

Cecile Brunner

The "Sweetheart" Rose, prized perhaps above all others as a boutonniere. Dainty buds of light pink, beautifully formed, borne on long wiry stems. Soft dark foliage on a dwarf, bushy plant. Fine also for massing and border planting, blooming freely through the summer.

Betty Prior Always in Bloom!

Always a mass of bloom—perfect for hedges, specimens and foundation plantings. It has lively red buds that open to 5-petaled, shell-pink flowers with spicy perfume. The petals are similar to dogwood in shape and size. Vigorous, healthy plants, very generous with their blooms. Often they grow 4 feet tall or more. Blooms are borne in big clusters in spring and continuously all season. Betty Prior is establishing herself as a most useful shrub for many uses. Among evergreens it is very striking, as well as along curbs and driveways. This wonderful Rose has now been on the market for twenty years, but each season it still wins countless new admirers.

Blaze

Aside from its glorious scarlet color, the two outstanding merits of Blaze are its ever-blooming characteristic and hardiness. Double, 2 to 3-inch flowers are carried in big clusters and the color lasts well. Makes a huge burst of June bloom and when established will repeat later in the season.

$1.50 each; 3 for $3.75; 12 for $15.00

Climbing Summer Snow

Huge clusters of glacier-white flowers 2 inches across and more. Every cluster contains 20 or more buds developing into loosely double blooms set off with golden stamens when wide open. A mountain of white almost covers the plant in June, repeating all summer and fall. The hardy, vigorous plant fills out rapidly. Height 8 to 10 feet. A useful white climber for any garden, requiring practically no special care and paying for itself many times over, every season. It is always admired for its masses of smashing white.

Days in Bloom

Marechal Niel

This is a famous old climbing Rose sent out from France about 90 years ago. The large, double, golden yellow flowers are very fragrant, and the long-pointed buds are particularly lovely. Vigorous and profuse in bloom. It is not hardy in the North, but is a long-time favorite here in the South and on the Pacific Coast. One of the best of all climbers for this locality.

$1.25 each; 3 for $3.25

New Dawn

A hardy everblooming climber that has firmly established itself in the affections of Rose growers all over the country. Delicate apple-blossom-pink in color, with appealing old-time fragrance. Very artistically formed buds and blooms with good cutting stems. Very easy to grow, needing little care and little ground space. Even one plant of New Dawn, with its glossy green foliage and softest pink flowers, will make a fine display on arbor or fence.

Golden Showers

Plant Pat. No. 1557

Long-pointed, daffodil-yellow buds and fragrant, high-centered, 4½ to 5-inch blooms with 25 to 30 petals. This is the first winter-hardy, ever-blooming pillar and climbing Rose that blooms from spring until late fall. It grows as a self-supporting pillar Rose, 8 to 10 feet tall. Or it can be trained as a climber on trellis or fence, or as a bush. This is the first climber in sixteen years to be given the AARS award, which proves what the judges think of it.

Ivory Fashion AARS Winner for 1959 Plant Pat. No. 1688

This Floribunda will long be a favorite for its sophisticated simplicity and its approach to the ideal in form of bud and bloom. Buds very long and slender, opening slowly, showing a slight touch of yellow. Lightly cupped, clear ivory-colored blooms, long lasting and displaying richly decorative, long, graceful golden stamens. Petals are firm and heavy.

Starfire AARS Winner for 1959

Plant Pat. App. for

A new Grandiflora . . . the "Rose-lover's Rose." Its unusual currant-red color is sunfast, and the urn-shaped buds open into distinctive, perfectly contoured flowers. And when cut, Starfire is remarkably long lasting. It possesses a unique luminous quality that gives texture and depth to each velvety petal. Abundant, bronzy green foliage. Flowers are borne freely, both singly and in clusters.
